

St. Pope John Paul II

Feastday: October 22
Patron: of World Youth Day (Co-Patron)
Birth: 1920
Death: 2005
Beatified: May 1, 2011 Saint Peter's Square, Vatican City by Pope Benedict XVI
Canonized: April 27, 2014 Saint Peter's Square, Vatican City by Pope Francis

St. Pope John Paul II Karol J. Wojtyła, known as John Paul II since his October 1978 election to the papacy, was born in Wadowice, a small city 50 kilometres from Cracow, on May 18, 1920. He was the second of two sons born to Karol Wojtyła and Emilia Kaczorowska. His mother died in 1929. His eldest brother Edmund, a doctor, died in 1932 and his father, a non-commissioned army officer died in 1941.

He made his First Holy Communion at age 9 and was confirmed at 18. Upon graduation from Marcin Wadowita high school in Wadowice, he enrolled in Cracow's Jagiellonian University in 1938 and in a school for drama.

The Nazi occupation forces closed the university in 1939 and young Karol had to work in a quarry (1940-1944) and then in the Solvay chemical factory to earn his living and to avoid being deported to Germany.

In 1942, aware of his call to the priesthood, he began courses in the clandestine seminary of Cracow, run by Cardinal Adam Stefan Sapieha, archbishop of Cracow. At the same time, Karol Wojtyła was one of the pioneers of the "Rhapsodic Theatre," also clandestine.

After the Second World War, he continued his studies in the major seminary of Cracow, once it had re-opened, and in the faculty of theology of the Jagiellonian University, until his priestly ordination in Cracow on November 1, 1946.

Soon after, Cardinal Sapieha sent him to Rome where he worked under the guidance of the French Dominican, Garrigou-Lagrange. He finished his doctorate in theology in 1948 with a thesis on the topic of faith in the works of St. John of the Cross. At that time, during his vacations, he exercised his pastoral ministry among the Polish immigrants of France, Belgium and Holland.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

World Mission Sunday, the annual, worldwide Eucharistic celebration for the Missions of the Church, will be on October 23, 2022. This important day in the life of the Church universal, is vital to the growth of the Church and the spread of the Gospel in predominantly impoverished and remote areas overseas and helps to build a future of hope around the world.

The theme for the 2022 World Mission Day reminds us that the Church is missionary by nature: 'You shall be my witnesses', 'to the ends of the earth' and 'you shall receive the power of the Holy Spirit'. (Acts 1:8). In this spirit, Pope Francis has asked us to reflect on these three key phrases that synthesize the three foundations of the life and mission of every Christian disciple.

Please accept my sincere personal gratitude for your kind missionary heart and reaching out in love with your prayers and generous help in next week's World Mission Sunday collection. This special collection will support priests, religious and lay leaders who serve the world's most vulnerable communities.

Sincerely yours

Most Reverend Peter Baldacchino Bishop of Las Cruces

Annie's Cupboard: the pantry needs any and all donations especially canned meats and meats in general. All donations are greatly appreciated. The pantry also assists the Soup Kitchen with foods, so all donations help both programs. Thank you for your continued generosity with donating to keep our community fed.
