

St. Clare of Assisi was born in Assisi on July 16, 1194, as Chiara Offreduccio, the beautiful eldest daughter of Favorino Sciffi, Count of Sasso-Rosso and his wife Ortolana. Tradition says her father was a wealthy representative of an ancient Roman family and her mother was a very devout woman belonging to the noble family of Fiumi. As a young girl, Clare dedicated herself to prayer. At 18-years-old, she heard St. Francis of Assisi preach during a Lenten service in the church of San Giorgio and asked him to help her live according to the Gospel. On Palm Sunday in 1212, Clare left her father's home and went to the chapel of the Porziuncula to meet with Francis. While there, Clare's hair was cut off and she was given a plain robe and veil in exchange for her rich gown. Clare joined the convent of the Benedictine nuns of San Paulo, near Bastia, under Francis' orders. When her father found her and attempted to force her back into his home, she refused and professed that she would have no other husband than Jesus Christ. In order to give her the greater solitude she desired, Francis sent Clare to Sant' Angelo in Panzo, another Benedictine nuns monastery. Clare's sister Catarina, who took the name Agnes, joined her at this monastery. The two remained there until a separate dwelling was built for them next to the church of San Damiano. Overtime, other women joined them, wanting to also be brides of Jesus and live with no money. They became known as the "Poor Ladies of San Damiano." They all lived a simple life of austerity, seclusion from the world, and poverty, according to a Rule which Francis gave them as a Second Order. St. Clare and her sisters wore no shoes, ate no meat, lived in a poor house, and kept silent most of the time. Their lives consisted of manual labor and prayer. Blessed Sacrament on her hands. She had the Blessed Sacrament placed at the wall where the enemies could see it. Then on her knees, she begged God to save the sisters. "O Lord, protect these sisters whom I cannot protect now," she prayed. A voice seemed to answer: "I will keep them always in My care." In that moment, a sudden fright struck the attackers, and they fled as fast as they could without harming anyone in Assisi.

RCIA Class 7– As Christians we are followers of Christ. Indeed, Jesus is the very center and core of our faith. This Wednesday October 16, 2024 at [6:30pm] in the [Parish Hall] (north door entrance) we will be considering Jesus Christ, the Incarnation, and Public Ministry. Looking forward to seeing you in class! Hope to see you there!

Deacon's In the "Lord's Prayer" What do we Corner ask in the fifth petition—
"And forgive us our trespasses as we for forgive them who trespass against us"?
 We ask God to forgive us the sins we have committed against Him and remit the punishments we have deserved for them, as we ourselves forgive men the offenses they commit against us. What do we ask in the sixth petition— "And lead us not into temptation"? acknowledging our own weakness, we turn to God, praying to Him to deliver us from temptations, or at least to grant us the help of His grace to overcome them.
